Jackie Jokers in Sensational Dummy!

The lettering on the office door read 'Ben Booker—Theatrical Agent'. The well dressed man studied it silently for a moment, nodded slightly, and opened the door. "Klunker!—Herb Klunker, as I live and breathe!" exclaimed Ben Booker, rising from his chair behind the cluttered desk to greet his visitor. "How have you been?"

"Can't complain, Ben" came the reply. "I'm not in show business anymore, but I still enjoy following the careers of some of the people whose work I admire. As a matter of fact, that's why I've come to see you today!"

Ben Booker smiled. "You know, Herb," he said, a cloud of purple cigar smoke escaping from his lips, "I've seen a lot of acts in my day, but I still think you were the best ventriloquist act I've ever seen!"

"Thanks, Ben, but that brings me to the reason I'm here today," answered Herb. "You're handling a kid named Jackie Jokers. I've watched him work and I think he's just right for what I have in mind!"

Ben leaned over his desk expectantly. "Jackie Jokers is the finest young comedian in the country today! What do you have in mind?"

"A ventriloquist act!" came the quick reply. "Not an ordinary ventriloquist act, but something different!" Noticing Ben's expression of interest, Herb continued. "You may remember, just before I was forced to give up my act because of illness, there were stories going around that I was about to introduce a new technique."

Ben nodded—"Something regarding a new type of dummy, wasn't it?"

"RIGHT!" shot back Herb, "Ever since then, I've been waiting for a performer to come along who could handle it, and your Jackie Jokers is that performer! If it's agreeable to you, let's meet at the Broadway Theatre tomorrow. I'll bring my wooden friend—you invite Jackie, and let's see if we can get them together!"

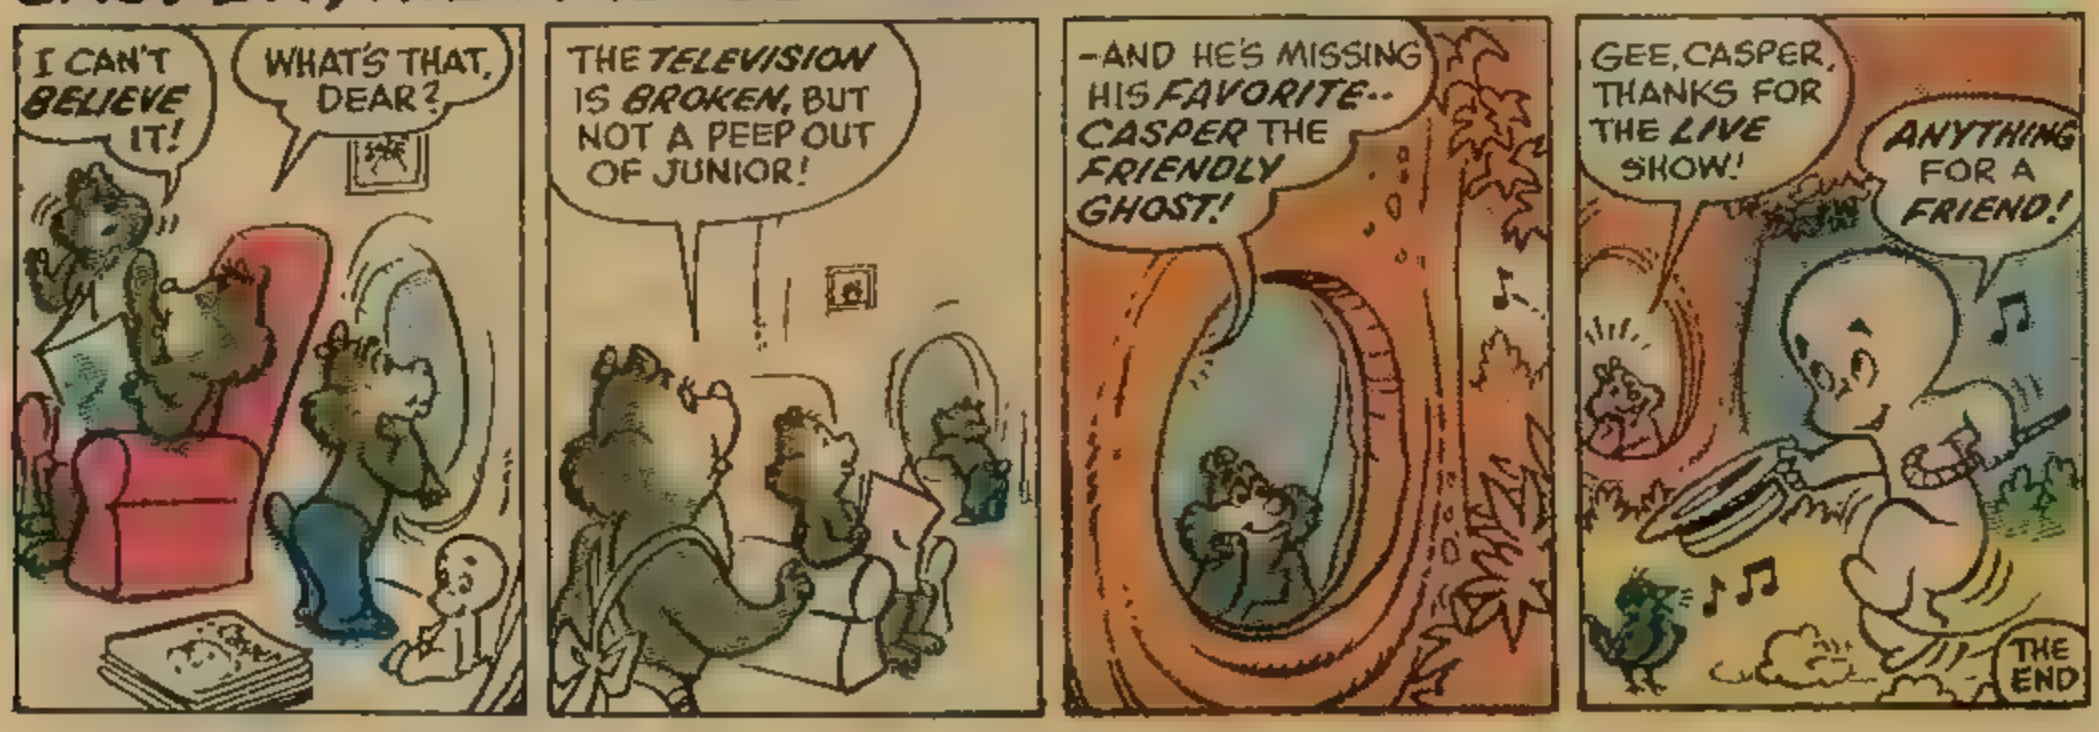
"Agreed!" laughed Ben, walking from behind his desk to shake Herb's hand. "See you tomorrow!"

Jackie Jokers wasn't prepared for what met his eyes when he arrived at the Broadway Theater. He had used several different dummies in the ventriloquism portion of his act, but he had never seen one quite like this! It was as large as a man and had the funniest face Jackie had ever seen. Jackie noticed Ben Booker and Herb Klunker standing near the dummy. With no hesitation, Jackie walked right up to the wooden figure, extended his hand, and said, "I'm very pleased to meet you, Mr. Klunker—I've heard so much about you!"

Ben and Herb burst out laughing and Jackie heard Herb say, "I'm sure that Jackie will be great for what I have in mind! Let's get down to business!"

Several weeks of secret rehearsing followed. The word was out that Jackie Jokers was going to introduce an unusual ventrilo-

CASPER, THE FRIENDLY GHOST



quism act and the opening-night celebrity audience at the Broadway Theatre was abuzz. What could be new about a ventriloquism act? They didn't have to wait long to find out! The houselights dimmed, the spotlight searched out curtain right, the orchestra struck up a fanfare and into the spotlight leaped Jackie Jokers and what had to be the largest ventriloquist's dummy anyone had ever seen!

"So what!" muttered some people in the audience. "Big deal!" "A big dummy—THAT'S the unusual act we came to see?"

The first inkling the audience had that this was, indeed, a special evening was when Jackie and Woodenhed (the dummy's name) sat down on a stool at center stage. Instead of the dummy sitting on Jackie's lap, Jackie was sitting on the DUMMY's lap! This was going to be different!

"How are you feeling tonight, Jackie?" Woodenhed asked!

"Not bad, considering I'm the first live person to work for a dummy!" answered Jackie.

"That's not so," replied Woodenhed, pointing towards the audience. "I'm sure there are plenty of people out there who feel THEY work for DUMMIES!"

The audience roared it's approval as Woodenhed continued: "You know, Jackie, you're lucky! I'm constructed of LUXURY woods, LUXURY materials, and LUXURY wiring!"

"How does that make ME lucky?" asked Jackie.

"Because," continued Woodenhed, "You're sitting in the LAP OF LUXURY!"

Jackie's practiced glare added to the crowd's mirth and it was soon obvious that the new act was a smash hit!

A delighted crowd exited the Broadway Theatre several hours later, thrilled by the amazing talents of Jackie Jokers.

Later that evening, at the best table at Sardi's, traditional dining spot of theatre people, Jackie, Herb Klunker and Ben Booker discussed the sensational reviews.

"Jackie" said Herb, "You brought my idea to life!"

"That's nothing!" Woodenhed said suddenly. "If he's such a genius, let's see him bring ME to life!"

Everybody burst into laughter, and Jackie wished this wonderful evening would never end.
